

AFLW Edition

Test your knowledge of AFLW players with our Guess the Player card game! This is a great game for the whole team, and can be played on a video call or in person at your Footy Colours Day event.

How to Play

- 1. The aim of the game is to collect as many AFLW player cards as possible, by guessing the AFLW team player the quickest.
- 2. The designated quize master reads one fact out to the other players.
- 3. For each fact read out, players gets one guess each.
- 4. Players must call out their own name to have their guess.
- 5. The player who guesses correctly first, keeps the AFLW team player card.
- 6. At the end of the game, the player with the most AFLW team player cards wins.

- 1. This player won the best and fairest award three times in the netball league.
- 2. A local Geelong athlete, this player represented the local side for St Mary's in Netball.
- 3. In 2017, this consistent midfielder finished fourth in Geelong VFLW's best and fairest and was part of the leadership group the following year.
- 4. In the 2018 VFLW season, she recorded the most average disposals per game, had over 20 possessions and averaged over 9 tackles.
- 5. Debuted in round 1 of the 2019 AFLW this player wears number 12 for the Geelong Cats.

- Renee Garing, Geelong FC, AFLW
- 1. This player was drafted in 2018 by the Geelong Football Club.
- 2. A tall defender, this player was named the All-Australian Under-18 squad and the 2018 TAC Cup Team of the Year.
- 3. She was drafted with selection number 24 in the 2018 AFL Women's draft.
- 4. Made her AFLW debut in round two of the 2019 season for the Geelong Football Club.
- 5. She is a defender for the Cats and wears number 17.

- An avid Essendon supporter growing up, this player's dad and brother both played football as well.
- 2. Grew up playing cricket, athletics and netball before starting football.
- 3. Played for the Ballarat Swans at the age of 12.
- 4. Dual-sport athlete Jess Duffin is known to be this player's role model.
- 5. She was the second selection in the 2018 AFL Women's draft and debuted with the Cats in 2019 sporting number 27.

- Sophie Van De Heuvel, Geelong FC, AFLW
- 1. Originally played OzTag, a variant of rugby league, representing Australia in the sport.
- 2. Played with the Gungahlin Jets in the AFL Canberra for two seasons.
- 3. Outside of football, this player works as a teaching assistant at Xavier College.
- 4. Initially selected as a Melbourne Demons Rookie in 2017.
- 5. This player was then drafted by Collingwood in late 2018 and made her professional debut in round 3 of the 2019 season.

- In 2017, this player had no prior experience playing Australian football, but hoped to play as a forward.
 In 2018, this player was then signed by the
- In 2018, this player was then signed by the Collingwood Football Club as a cross-code rookie.
- 3. Before AFL, this player represented Australia in junior netball and played indoor volleyball professionally in Europe.
- 4. She won an under-age world championship medal in beach volleyball.
- 5. She retired from the league after the 2019 season.

Eliza Hynes, Collingwood FC, AFLW

- 1. Originally from Queensland and a rugby sevens player at national level.
- 2. Alongside their football career, this player is also a paramedic.
- 3. Player was draft pick 70 in the 2018 AFLW draft.
- 4. This player made the switch to play AFLW with Collingwood in 2018.
- 5. Her position is a Forward / Ruck, wearing number 15.

Georgia Clarke, Geelong FC, AFLW

Maddie Shevlin, Collingwood FC, AFLW

Erica Fowler, Collingwood FC, AFLW

- 1. Spent the early years of their football career at the Carlton Football Club having been drafted by the club in 2016.
- 2. The former Carlton Football Club Blue featured in 11 matches for Geelong's VFLW team in 2019.
- 3. In May 2018, this player made the change to the Geelong Football Club.
- 4. This key forward was a focal point for the Geelong Cats in 2019 with five goals in seven games.
- 5. She is a Defender / Forward for the Geelong Football Club.

- Kate Darby, Geelong FC, AFLW
- 1. Played for the Victorian Women's Football League with the Eastern Devils from 2014 to 2016.
- 2. She is a former Susan Alberti Medallist.
- 3. Made her debut in the AFL in 2017 playing for the Western Bulldogs.
- 4. She was traded to Collingwood in 2017.
- 5. A hugely influential player at Collingwood she was awarded the clubs best and fairest awards for 2019 and 2020.

- 1. This player has averaged 19 disposals and 3.7 tackles per game.
- 2. Has broken the record for most disposals in an AFLW game (35).
- She earned her first All-Australian selection and finished equal-third in Adelaide's best and fairest.
- 4. She is a 2 time AFL Women's premiership player: 2017, 2019.
- 5. This midfielder is number 33 for the Adelaide Crows.

- Anne Hatchard, Adelaide FC, AFLW
- Born and raised in Brisbane's northern suburbs, this player began playing competitive football at age 5 and continued on to play in a mixed competition with young girls and boys until the age of 13.
- 2. At the age of 15, she played senior football in the AFL Queensland Women's League, winning best and fairest in her first season.
- 3. She made her AFL debut with the Brisbane Lions in 2017.
- 4. Listed in the 2017 & 2018 All-Australian team, this player is also a professional boxer.
- 5. Traded to Carlton in 2018, this player went on to be Carlton's lead goal kicker for that year and 2019!

Tayla Harris, Carlton FC, AFLW

- 1. A midfielder who is averaging 14.5 tackles a game.
- 2. The first AFLW player to score a perfect 10 AFL Coaches votes across five games.
- 3. She debuted in 2019 as her football career was put on hold for three years due to three knee reconstructions.
- 4. She won Fremantle's best and fairest award in 2019 and was named in the 2019 and 2020 AFL Women's All-Australian team.
- 5. In 2020 she played in every game of Fremantle's undefeated season before the coronavirus global pandemic, winning the best player award in the first ever AFL Women's Western Derby.

Kiara Bowers, Fremantle FC, AFLW

- 1. Played with the Coastal Titans in the West Australian Women's Football League.
- 2. A dual AFL Women's All-Australian and inaugural Fremantle fairest and best winner in 2017
- 3. Despite a disappointing season for Fremantle in 2017, this player thrived and was named in the team's best players in every match for the season.
- 4. This star ex-Fremantle Docker jumped ship to cross-town rivals, the West Coast Eagles.
- 5. In December 2019, she was named vice-captain, supporting inaugural captain Emma Swanson.

Dana Hooker, West Coast FC, AFLW

Jaimee Lambert, Collingwood FC, AFLW

- 1. Born in Brisbane, completed high school at lpswich Girls' Grammar School, this player was playing for Wilston Grange when she was drafted.
- 2. At the end of her first season, she won the Lions' Most Courageous award.
- 3. Since then she has been honoured with best and fairest in 2018; 3rd best and fairest in 2019; All-Australian in 2018.
- 4. She has been nominated for Brisbane's Mark of the Year.
- 5. This star defender has a fantastic read on the ball, wearing number 13, she is instrumental to Brisbane's efforts to stop opposition goals.

Kate Lutkins, Brisbane Lions FC, AFLW

- 1. This player attended Gisborne Secondary College and grew up supporting Essendon.
- 2. She began playing football at four years old through the Auskick program in Romsey, northwest of Melbourne.
- 3. As a midfielder, she has won multiple awards at junior level and played in the VFL Women's as a teenager.
- 4. This Carlton Blues midfielder wears number 4 on the team.

Madison Prespakis, Carlton FC, AFLW

5. She won the 2020 AFL Women's best and fairest award.

- 1. Born in Bright, Victoria this player grew up as a Carlton supporter.
- 2. Upon moving to Melbourne, this player started working as a midwife at Box Hill Hospital.
- 3. In July 2016, she was announced as one of Melbourne Demons' two marquee players to play in the inaugural AFL Women's season.
- 4. She is known as the face of women's Australian Rules football and is one of its first ambassadors.
- 5. A much loved AFLW icon, she is the Melbourne Demons captain.

Daisy Pearce, Melbourne FC, AFLW

- 1. This player first played football at the age of 16 in 2005 with Lalor Park, securing a premiership in her first year of football.
- 2. She is a 3 time VWFL premiership player: 2011, 2013 and 2014.
- 3. Her first senior VWFL season was with St Albans (now the VU Western Spurs) in 2009 where she went to play over 50 matches.
- 4. She was signed to the Melbourne Football Club as a priority player in 2017 and went on to become the first three-time All-Australian in 2019.
- 5. She is the Melbourne Demons vice-captain.

- 1. This player lived in Dongara in the Mid-West region of Western Australia then moved to Perth where she played for East Fremantle.
- 2. She was named 2019 All-Australian in the U18s.
- 3. She is a 2020 nominee for the AFL Women's Rising Star award.
- 4. She was selected at number 12 as Fremantle's first pick in the 2019 AFLW draft.
- 5. Goes by the nickname of Roxy Roux.

Roxanne Roux, Fremantle FC, AFLW

- She played nine seasons in the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) for five different teams and is a two-time WNBA champion.
- 2. Representing Australia on the Opals team, she won a gold medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championship.
- 3. Since then she has played four seasons in the AFL Women's (AFLW) competition, in which she is a two-time premiership player and two-time league best and fairest.
- 4. Awarded Goal of the Year in 2017.
- 5. She was the Crows leading goal kicker in 2018 and has been co-captain since 2017.

Karen Paxman, Melbourne FC, AFLW

Erin Phillips, Adelaide FC, AFLW

- 1. Completing high school at St Michael's Grammar School in St Kilda, Melbourne's south, this player has aspirations to study medicine.
- 2. This player started off as an exceptional junior footballer, whereby in one match she kicked five goals (including four in one quarter) and recorded 30 disposals, all in a shortened match of 12-minute quarters.
- 3. This 2017 NAB AFLW number 1 draft pick has been plagued by injury managing three games late last season due to a leg sprain, after recovering from two knee reconstructions and a leg break.
- 4. She is a member of the six-person leadership group for the 2020 AFLW season.
- 5. Plays for the Western Bulldogs and is cousins with Carlton's AFL player Will Setterfield.

Isabel Huntington, Western Bulldogs FC, AFLW

- 1. This player used to be a former soccer striker.
- 2. In April 2020, she was named an All-Australian.
- 3. She topped the VFLW's Southern Saints' goal kicking for 2019 with 22 goals.
- 4. Considered to be St Kilda's most damaging weapon heading into 2020 and presented with the AFLW's Leading Goalkicker Award.
- 5. She has earned the nickname "G-Train" (a nickname also used to describe former St Kilda footballer Fraser Gehrig) after kicking a long-range goal in the Saints' round three victory over Melbourne.

Caitlin Greiser, St Kilda FC, AFLW

- 1. Played footy since she was a child in Victoria going through the youth girls system and finding her feet at senior level.
- 2. Previously played for the Carlton Football Club in 2017.
- 3. After being delisted by Carlton she then signed with Greater Western Sydney in 2018 as a delisted free agent.
- 4. In 2019 she took an off field role with the Giants as a Merchandise Coordinator and got drafted back to GWS ahead of the 2020 season.
- 5. She was awarded with the AFLW's Mark of the Year in 2020 playing for the GWS Giants.

Rebecca Privitelli, GWS FC, AFLW